

Click here!

Design and Art Direction for MOSAIC

ZIGURAT's magazine focused on artificial intelligence applied to architecture, BIM, and academic projects. The work centered on editorial layout, creating a clear and dynamic visual structure that balances technical content with a contemporary aesthetic. Social media creatives were also developed, ensuring consistency between the magazine's visual identity and its digital communication.